

AI Kitaab Answer Key Third Edition

Conversatiegids voor het Modern Standaard Arabisch; met audio-cd.

Bijna vier jaar na het begin van de Arabische lente is het Midden-Oosten grotendeels veranderd in een conflictzone waar landen elkaar bestrijden, burgeroorlogen uitgevochten worden en de Islamitische Staat (IS) de chaos heeft aangegrepen om een moorddadig bewind in te stellen. Er gaat vrijwel geen dag voorbij of het Midden-Oosten is in het nieuws. Op heldere en begrijpelijke wijze ontrafelen Hans Luiten en Sven de Graaf stap voor stap het labrynt dat het Midden- Oosten tegenwoordig vormt. De auteurs beginnen hun verhaal met de val van het Osmaanse rijk en de verdeling van het Midden-Oosten tussen Groot-Brittannië en Frankrijk na de Eerste Wereldoorlog. Ook geven zij een verklaring voor de opkomst van het islamitische fundamentalisme en het ontstaan van radicale bewegingen zoals IS. Verder analyseren zij de vele sociale, economische en religieuze verschillen die het Midden-Oosten zo kenmerken. Na het lezen van dit boek ben je veel beter in staat om de berichtgeving over dit gebied te begrijpen.

CBIP is the complete reference and buying guide to English-language Canadian books currently in print; consequently, the Author and Title Index, Subject Index and microfiche editions are indispensable to the book profession. With submissions from both small and large publishers, CBIP provides access to titles not listed anywhere else. Containing more than 48,000 titles, of which approximately 4,000 have a 2001 imprint, the Author and Title Index is extensively cross-referenced. The Subject Index lists the titles under 800 different subject categories. Both books offer the most complete directory of Canadian publishers available, listing the names and ISBN prefixes, as well as the street, e-mail and web addresses of more than 4,850 houses. The quarterly microfiche service provides updated information in April, July and October. CBIP is constantly referred to by order librarians, booksellers, researchers, and all those involved in book acquisition. In addition, CBIP is an invaluable record of the vast wealth of publishing and writing activity in the scientific, literary, academic and arts communities across Canada. A quarterly subscription service including the annual Author and Title Index (March 2001) plus quarterly microfiche updates (April, July, and October 2001) is also available. This Arabic language textbook program uses a communicative, proficiency-oriented approach with fully integrated audio-visual media to teach modern Arabic as a living language. Intended primarily for college and graduate students but accessible enough for anyone interested in learning modern Arabic, the series focuses on developing skills in standard Arabic and gradually introducing students to the most widely spoken dialect in the Arabic-speaking world. Newly packaged with a set of three audio CDs, Alif Baa, Introduction to Arabic Letters and Sounds is the first part of the Al-Kitaab language program. In teaching the sounds and letters of Arabic, Alif Baa provides a variety of exercises aimed at developing all skills: reading, listening, writing, speaking, and cultural understanding. Along with an English-Arabic glossary, Alif Baa lays the groundwork for the rest of the Al-Kitaab language program.

This is the Teacher's Edition of Alif Baa, Third Edition. It includes the text, accompanying DVD, and the answer key all bound in to one book. Request a Desk/Exam copy here. The best-selling Alif Baa is the first volume of the Al-Kitaab Arabic language program and is now available in a new third edition. In this new version of the introduction to Arabic letters and sounds, English-speaking students will find an innovative integration of colloquial and formal (spoken and written) Arabic. Together, the book and new companion website provide learners with all the material necessary to learn the sounds of Arabic, write its letters, and begin speaking Arabic, including interactive, self-correcting exercises to enhance learning. The companion website also gives instructors additional online grading options. FEATURES • Four-color design throughout the book features over 100 illustrations and photographs • Gives learners and instructors color-coded options for the variety of language they wish to learn in speaking: Egyptian, Levantine, or formal Arabic (MSA) • Introduces over 200 basic vocabulary words in all three forms of spoken and written Arabic side by side, including expressions for polite social interaction, and activates them in interactive homework exercises and classroom groupwork • Includes video dialogues in Egyptian and Levantine, filmed in Cairo and Damascus • Includes video footage of an Arabic calligrapher, capsules on Arabic culture, and images of street signs from Morocco, Egypt, and Lebanon • Includes new English-Arabic and Arabic-English glossaries, searchable in the companion website • Textbook includes a convenient DVD with the basic audio and video materials (no interactive exercises) for offline study that will play in iTunes and compatible MP3 players • New companion website (sold separately) -- alkitaabtextbook.com -- features a fully integrated set of interactive exercises with all the video and audio materials and additional online course management and grading options for teachers Alif Baa provides the essential first 20-25 contact (classroom) hours of the Al-Kitaab program, accompanied by 40-50 homework hours. Students who complete Alif Baa should reach a novice-intermediate to novice-high level of proficiency.
