Most interviewers now look beyond a person's technical knowledge when determining who is the right candidate for the job. There is a smart way of making interviewers stare at you with interest as soon as you start telling them about your background and work experience. However, most people fail to nail this. They quote verbatim what's on their CV. The true is, if you're not creative in presenting who you are to your interviewers, you won't stand the chance of making it as a shortlisted applicant. Interviewers most of the time get bored because they keep hearing the same answers from interviewees on why they should be chosen over other applicants. The fact is, no matter how qualified you are, the answer you provide to this one question can slim down your chances of getting the company's employee tag.
