Wat heeft Lady Limbo te maken met de verdwijning van haar man? Hoe ver zal Paola Dante gaan om de enige man van wie ze ooit heeft gehouden te vinden? Paola Dante, een ambitieuze carrièrevrouw en in de steek gelaten echtgenote, ligt in coma. Ze staat voor een duidelijke keuze. Gaan of blijven? Ze moet een besluit nemen. Binnen een minuut - een verblijf in het limbo kan een seconde of eeuwig duren - overweegt ze de omstandigheden waardoor ze op de intensive care terecht is gekomen. Het begon allemaal met een merkwaardig incident in hun jeugd, met een ingewikkelde driehoeksverhouding en een tragisch ongeluk. Lange tijd later komt Daniel terug in haar leven en weet hij haar over te halen om met hem te trouwen. En dan verdwijnt hij op een dag spoorloos, terwijl hij het avondeten klaarmaakt. Het is alsof hij van de aardbodem is verdwenen, en nooit deel is geweest van haar leven.

Celebrated author Nancy Polette offers a complete mystery literature guide for primary, intermediate, and middle school mysteries. • Offers step-by-step guides for using mysteries in the classroom, including more than 200 mystery booktalks • Provides lists of the Edgar Allan Poe Junior Mystery Award winners from 1979 to 2008 • Ties to the National Standards in Reading, Language Arts, and Social Studies

This third edition of Erickson's bestseller provides updated information about designing curriculum aligned with state and national content standards, using brain-based teaching methods, and developing higher-order thinking skills.

The 3rd Edition of Literacy & Learning in the Content Areas helps readers build the knowledge, motivation, tools, and confidence they need as they integrate literacy into their middle and high school content area classrooms. Its unique approach to teaching content area literacy actively engages preservice and practicing teachers in reading and writing and the very activities that they will use to teach literacy to their own students in middle and high school classrooms .

Rather than passively learning about strategies for incorporating content area literacy activities, readers get hands-on experience in such techniques as mapping/webbing, anticipation guides, booktalks, class websites, and journal writing and reflection. Readers also learn how to integrate children's and young adult literature, primary sources, biographies, essays, poetry, and online content, communities, and websites into their classrooms. Each chapter offers concrete teaching examples and practical suggestions to help make literacy relevant to students' content area learning. Author Sharon Kane demonstrates how relevant reading, writing, speaking, listening, and visual learning activities can improve learning in content area in a practical guide essential for anyone choosing a book for or working with children.

Vier gelukkige kinderen verliezen hun vader bij een verkeersongeluk. Hun verwende moeder wendt zich in wanhoop tot haar ouders, die haar hebben ontferd toen zij vijftien jaar geleden wegliep om met een halfoom te trouwen. Zo verhuizen de kinderen in het holst van de nacht naar het riante landgoed van hun grootouders. Ze worden verstopt op een donkere, maffe zolder en moeten daar blijven tot de ongelooflijk rijke grootvader is gestorven. Dat is slechts een kwestie van dagen, volgens de moeder. Maar dagen worden maanden en uiteindelijk jaren en nog steeds gaat de zieke oude man niet dood. De wegwijnende kinderen worden 'verzorgd' door de grootmoeder, die hen kwelt en vernedert. De twee oudste kinderen naderen de volwassenheid, worstelen met nieuwe verlangens en begeertes. En dan ziet de oude grootmoeder haar kans schoon. Wrekend... en moordzuchtig.

Though much has been written about the Green Party in Germany, less is known about the changes in individuals' attitudes towards the environment that led to the rise of environmental movement, or of its cultural roots. This volume draws attention to the breadth of environmentalism in contemporary Germany and its significance for German political culture by focusing on the treatment of "green" issues in literature, the media and film, against the background of Green politics and the environmental movement. The volume includes an interview with Carl Amery, the Bavarian Green and science fiction writer, a short text by him and an account of his activities as writer and campaigner.

'The book provides valuable contributions on three related fronts: It places past and current debates on ecosystem restoration of the Everglades in a clear systems context that acknowledges feedback between ecosystem quality and economic growth; shows for the case of the Everglades that good intentions of providing generous financial support for restoration may lead to undesired effects that actually run counter to the original goal; and demonstrates the use of regional modeling tools to develop consistent baseline forecasts and alternative scenarios.' - Matthias Ruth, University of Maryland, College Park, US The restoration of the Florida Everglades, the largest ecosystem restoration project in the world, is now underway. Missing from the original plan, however, is a study of the region's cities and farms and the economic impact their growth will make on this already endangered ecosystem. This book provides that analysis.

In "Liquid Land," Levin guides readers past the dire headlines about the Everglades' demise and into the magnificent swamp itself, where they come face-to-face with the remaining plants, animals, and landscapes that will survive only if the public protects them.
