Numerous books have been written about Victorian child care pioneers, but few biographical studies have been published about more recent child care and welfare giants. In the revised edition of this classic book, Bob Holman, a champion for children in his own right, looks at the lives of six inspirational individuals who have made significant contributions to the well-being of disadvantaged children. Each of the six discussed - Eleanor Rathbone, Lady Marjory Allen, Clare Winnicott, John Stroud, Barbara Kahan and Peter Townsend - has been important in establishing present systems of child care and welfare, and in stimulating debate around issues which remain high on policy and practitioner agendas. Champions for children is essential reading for childhood and youth studies, sociology of the family, social work, social welfare, academics and students with an interest in child care and welfare issues.

Max is mad about sport. As he gets up, has breakfast and heads off to school, he is dreaming of competing in world class sporting events. In his real day, he and his class win the school football match and, in his imagination, he and his friends are winning the World Cup. This is a lively and fun approach to sport, and a very inclusive picture book showing disabled children and children without disabilities enjoying different sports together in a natural way. The sports include football, rugby, athletics, cricket, diving, discus throwing and cycling.

Why do some kids grow up to be leaders in their field while others fail? If you are a parent it's your dream to see your child reach success and ultimately a place of significance. Allow this book to show you this utterly dependable way to raise your child triumphing in life. Once this principle is applied, your child can perpetuate this to his own children one day. This is the beginning of your generations of champions.

The spirit of the ancient Arthurian legends is captured as the romantic adventures of Launcelot, Tristram, and Percival are recounted.

'Daantje, de wereldkampioen' won in 1977 een Zilveren Griffel. Een geweldig kinderboek van bestsellerauteur Roald Dahl, met prachtige tekeningen van bekroond illustrator Quentin Blake. Dit e-book kun je op je smartphone, tablet én op je e-reader lezen. Dit e-book is geschikt voor zowel iOS- als Android-besturingssystemen. Daantje is aardig, slim, oplettend en hij zit vol grappen. Hij woont in een oude woonwagen, samen met zijn vader, een geweldig verteller en een genie op het gebied van vliegers. Net als de dorpsagent en de domineesvrouw stroopt Daantjes vader af en toe een fazantje omdat het zo vreselijk spannend is... en lekker! Hun grootste vijand is een rijke pief die jaarlijks een jachtpartij op fazanten organiseert. Samen met zijn vader bindt Daantje de strijd aan met deze gluiperd. Every Child Needs a Champion is an inspirational work written in a simple message to remind us all that we are someones champion. Rita Pierson, a well-known educator put it this way, There is a value and importance in relationships and every child deserves a champion. Everyone has been affected by a person that took the time to develop a relationship with them through encouragement, motivational words, example, and inspiration. This book was written to encourage, motivate, and inspire all champions! We all need champions in our lives.

Many people are so preoccupied with the stumbling blocks in their path that they have little time for the building blocks necessary to construct an exemplary life. Pat Williams believes it's time to clear the road and get on with the business of living a more fulfilling life. The culmination of twenty-five years of research and a lifetime of experience, this book challenges readers to get off the bench and throw themselves into living to their greatest potential. Williams is cofounder of the Orlando Magic, host of a radio show, father of nineteen children including fourteen he and his wife adopted, and an avid collector of stories and quotes. Williams delivers a rallying cry to anyone ready to become the champion God intended.

This book is about a most private and secret habit my father had, and about the strange adventures it led us both into... Danny thinks the world of his father, who has looked after him ever since his mother died, when he was just four months old. But as he grows up, Danny discovers that his father's secret spells adventure and trouble for both of them. Nurture, Care, Respect, and Trust is the first collection of interdisciplinary and logically interconnected papers from nationally and internationally acclaimed researchers in philosophy, psychology, history of education, teacher training, educational leaders and practitioners, child advocates, and educators who have been motivated by the philosophy and pedagogy of Dr. Janusz Korczak (1878-1942), a world famous moral exemplar and champion of children's rights. The book provides answers to timely questions of how to respect children's rights in K-12 schools, community centers, summer camps, and colleges; how to create an atmosphere of trust and safety, and provide social-emotional learning in the classroom; how to become a genuine child advocate; and how to support growing child agency. It also tells the story of Korczak, his life, and the lives of the children in his charge. Nurture, Care, Respect, and Trust details how Korczak's legacy encourages and stimulates new projects and spreads around the world. The volume serves as a rich resource of practical materials for teachers and university instructors, introducing a number of innovative lesson plans, examples of students' works, and school projects inspired by Korczak's pedagogy.

These words borrowed from the well-known medical doctor Parch Adams, demonstrate the revolutionary spirit of this book, Dante Gebel is known throughout much of the Hispanic world as an excellent speaker who is able to immerse his audience in the most fascinating stories and guide them through emotional labyrinths ranging from laughter to tears. This book is, in essence, a labor of passion, dedicated to those who are suffering from "holy discontent," or as the author himself would say, those who have a double dose of spiritual ambition. This unique book has already been part of the history of those who desire to make a significant impact on this planet. In summary, The Champion's Code is written for people who are unique, decisive, and radical.

Even amongst the most elite performers, certain athletes stand out as a cut above the rest, able to outperform in clutch, game-deciding moments. These athletes prove that raw athletic ability doesn't necessarily translate to a superior on-field experience—it's the mental game that matters most. Sports participation—from the recreational to the collegiate Division I level—is at an all-time high. While the caliber of their game may differ, athletes at every level have one thing in common: they want to excel. In The Champion's Mind, sports psychologist Jim Afremow, PhD, LPC, now offers the same advice he uses with Olympians, Heisman Trophy winners, and professional athletes, including: Tips and techniques based on high-performance psychology research, such as how to get in a "zone," thrive on a team, and stay humble How to progress within a sport and sustain excellence long-term Customizable pre-performance routines to hit full power when the gun goes off or the puck is dropped The Champion's Mind distills actionable advice into clear and concise steps for athletes looking to find confidence, concentration, and mental preparedness—the mental edge that sets champions apart.

"You are holding in your hands the strongest tool for building a brilliant future for you and your children" The Champion Doctrine reveals for the first time the methods for programming mental secrets used by professional athletes. These are now available to you to reader, for application in any aspect of your personal life: the education of your children, financial success, relationships, the prevention and curing of diseases. A book that is absolutely novel and full of surprises. With the techniques explored within, derived from neuroscience, you will learn how to:

- Become the master of your own future
- Manufacture good luck
- Generate projects
- Increase your income by a substantial margin
- Prevent malignant disease
- Complement malignant disease therapy in a decisive manner
- End negative relationships
- Educate your children to become players, not merely spectators, in life
- Install a winning mentality in your brain
- Find energy and resources for new undertakings
- Make spectacular progress in your brain and begin to think better
- Attain empathy with others in your relations, and triumph

True champions are made, not born. God builds champions and He wants to build you into the champion you were meant to be. Success is defined in today's culture mostly by monetary wealth. Leaders are defined by leading. But champions are in a class by themselves. They are not defined by money or followers, but by how they live and influence people in ways that glorify God and encourage and inspire others. Examining the lives of biblical and modern-day champions gives you the keys to becoming a champion through developing:

- Stamina during challenges.
- Winning character traits.
- Integrity and trustworthiness.
- Leadership qualities.
- Solid moral values.

Author and pastor Kenneth Ulmer offers guidance and advice in a world increasingly bereft of true champions. You will learn how to stay on track to becoming a true champion God's way, and not be tripped up as many self-described Christian leaders have been in recent years. Choose today to be a champion!
